

Understanding Misunderstanding

Known, and unknown
Road signs encountered on the always
Unfamiliar way to conclusions.
Infinite variety, the calculation of positives
Disappointment in expectation
The inner self encountered as surprise—
Without an unprecedented sound;
Boisterous often in its intensity
Shocking by its revelations
Cruel in the scale of its wanting.

Great is the awareness of stult
When high-rises of assumptions crash.
Identity hybridized from anyone's stock
Risks raveling in the face of fundamentals.
Inwardness unsupported by outwardness lacks balance
Veering toward cynicism, character's flotation device
While ambiguities of unknowing 'frigerate the core.

Sunny is the gut security of acceptance
Having read the Braille of contradictory subtlety
Arriving outside, intact, breathing oxygen of
Intuited understanding,
To hear news heard as good, feel
Comforted by perspectives of truth—
Feel glad to be alive, and knowing.
